STRUCK BY A TRAIN.-About half-past STRUCK BY A TEAIN.—About half-past six o'clock this morning a north bound passager train of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railread when a short distance north of Fourmile run struck a brick wagon, drawn by two horses and in which a white man named Nicholson and a colored man named J. Nicholson and a colored man named George Lee were sitting. The latter was kiled instantly, and the former terribly manged. Both horses were killed outright, mangled. Both horses were kined outright, one being literally cut in two, and the wagon smashed. The train was stopped and Mr. Nicholson and the dead man placed on board and taken to Washington, where the injured man shortly afterward died. Lee's body was subsequently taken back to the seens of the acc dent and an inquest held.
The syldence exonerated the trainmen from The evidence table shown that the team was on the track and the horses seemingly saw or heard a train coming and grew alarmed. From what could be learned the cocupants of the wazon did not see the approaching of the wagon did not see the approaching train and had just whipped up the horses when the locomotive struck them.

The place where the accident occurred is a short distance north of Four-mile run, near a farm crossing, and being up grade heavy passenger trains are compelled to run fast before reaching that secto see any distance ahead, and when he disgovered the ill-fated team on the track could not step in time to avert an accident.

The bores killed had been kept at night on the swann farm, and the team was on ite way to an adjacent brick yard when struck.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. - Oa Saturday even-ATEMPTED SUICIDE.— On Saturday even-ing James Dudley, colored, plasterer, who claims to be a member of the G. A. R., ex-politician, etc., not satisfied with the blood-heat superinduced by the torrid wave now pessing over this part of the country, raised his "gauge" still further by indulging in stimulating potions, after which he went home and made it rather uncomfortable for his family. His better-half, after having her catteness are all tried sout for a sellow of the family. his family. His better-half, after having her patience sorely tried, sent for a policeman, and in a short time Officer Jones appeared at Dulley's house and demanded the body of the delinquent. The officer soon found the object of his search and took him in charge, but Dudley was desirous of arguing the legality of the procedure and demanded that a warrant be shown before he be taken. The officer presented his "billy," and quietly remarked that tout was his warrant, which proving saturactory, Dudiey was escorted to the station house. Upon realizing that he was to be held in durance vile till Monday morning, life seemed to have lost Monday morning, life seemed to have lost its charms, and the prisoner began making propations for escaping any further of its ills by making his exit from this to the spirit world a la Judas Iscariot; so doffing his shirt he improvised a rope, from the end of which he was soon dangling. Lieut, Smith, however, opportunely put in an appearance and intercepted the parage of the would by suicide across the styxian flood by cutting him down. This morning Dodley was fined for disorderly conduct and discharged.

YESTERDAY, it is generally admitted, broke the record for heat this season, it being about as comfortable hereabouts as in Singapore. The sun "fulled" early in the day, and by the time people gathered in the churches the heat was very oppressive, forcing the perspiration from every pure of the body. Fans were plied continuously during the services which followed, and after most of the worshippers had werded their way home under the tropical heat they had but little inclination to expeed them selves again to D bottest portion of the afternoon but few paople were to be seen on the street. About the wharves a few bunches of men were gathered in the stade of some friendly shed or warehon - waiching the excursion boats which pas e' up and down the tiver. These steamers, it is believed, carried more passenger; restorday than on any Sunday this sessed, most of the boa's being loaded down to their guards. The temperature after eucdown had fallen but little, no air circulating calculated to afford ralled to awaltering human!'v. The sun set red and flery, indicative of continued clear and bot weather, and the uncomfortableness experienced to-day shows the sign to have

FELL OVERBOARD -About eight o'clock last evening when the steamer Peniz, with an immente erowd of excursionists on a return trip from R ver View, was making a landing at the Prince street wharf, William M.Kin-ney as e of the steamer, fell from the gang-Way into the water. A strong il and tide was running and in order to rescue the mate the steamer missed her landing. McKinney swam to a pier and was rescued by parties the stock market this in a yawl boat. The scene at the wharf was exciting—'ally twelve hundred persons were on the boat and two hundred on the wharf. The cry of "Man overboard" and the glass of the placement the glare of the steamer's search light which was directed to the end of the p'er and the screams of women and children caused a large number to hurry to the wharf. Mate McKinney received only a good ducking. The steamer after after a long detour effected a landing and liberated some two hundred Alexandrians who were among her passen-

Rev. John Bray, who for the greater part of his life was a minister of the Baptist Church, died in Washington on Saturday. He was well known throughout Virginia.

Four young men, members of the Old Do-minion Boat Club, who were out rowing on Saturday evening, were thrown into the river by the capsizing of their boat. They were rescued by Officer Davis. The committee of citizens of Washington of the Grand Army of the Republic to hold their next annual encampment in Washing ton, were welcomed with fitting enthusiasm on their return home Saturday night. Mr. Adam Koehler, an old citizen of South Washington and propriet r of Koehler's bakery, hanged himself in his stable with a clothes-line yesterday. When found he bad been dead some hours. It is supposed that depression over some business troubles prompted him to take his life. During a little disturbance on the wharf at River View yesterdsy evening a resident of this city was slightly cut in the side by a man from the upper country who had been his companion during the evening.

A brakeman on the Washington Southern road named Willis was overcome by the heat in the company's yard this morning, and was sent to the Infirmary, where he is now receiving attention. The wood work about two of the kilns at the Columbia Brick Works, between this city and Washington, was damaged by fire Saturday night, but the loss was small.

Several workmen came here to-day from Baltimore to rebuild three of the benches at the Gas Works.

SHE MADE THE COULT BLUSH,-The complainant in the serious case of Minoty against Minoty, before Judge Cornish Saturday morning at the Lewiston Police Court, was Angele, the wife, a dark woman, with a handsome face, thin red lips, sparkling eyes, and nervous hands.
